

My job as a School council is to respect other peoples opinions and try to make

St Augustines a funner school.

We do work with charities to raise money for them, And we do coffee mornings too help raise money. We did a down syndrome day and raised £200+ and were very succesful.

We did a wear it yellow day for the charity hello yellow and a coffee morning and we did a wear it blue day for the NHS

